

DRAW A MOST TERRIBLE PICTURE

Daily Telegraph Correspondent Gives Inside Facts.

EXCESSES OF THE ITALIAN SOLDIERS

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS BEING RUSHED FORWARD.

Amount of Indemnity May Be Reduced Somewhat—Greek Army is Virtually Paralyzed—Edem Pasha Repeats His Statement That Peace Must Be Negotiated With Him—Deserters Pillage Villages.

London, May 23.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph in Epirus gives a terrible picture of the excesses of the Italians while traveling from Arta to Seaverda. He says: They stole brandy and drank it like water. Armed with revolvers and bayonets, by the way they reached Seaverda they were quarrelling fiercely. The villagers, thoroughly alarmed, got in readiness to fight and the situation became serious. A Greek tried to pacify a Garibaldian, who was about to dash his brains out with a stone, whereupon an Italian fired and wounded the Garibaldian. Instantly the cry was raised: "A Greek has been killed!" and the villagers began to fire their rifles. The firing became general, but the Italians displayed a flag of truce and the fighting was stopped. Several officers told me they did not expect to reach land alive, as their ruffianly soldiers would surely kill them.

More Serious Outbreaks.

London, May 23.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Constantinople says that serious outbreaks against the Armenians have occurred in a village near Van and at Ineboli, a seaport of Asia Minor. The Russian consul at Ineboli has telegraphed to the government to send a warship.

Peace Negotiations Continue.

London, May 23.—The correspondent of the Standard at Constantinople says the peace negotiations continue. It is asserted that the amount of indemnity will be reduced to $300,000. The Greek army is paralyzed and news comes from Salonika of the departure of large Turkish reinforcements to Thessaly. At Larissa, Trilakia and Karditza, the Turks seized corn valued at a million drachmas. Great indignation is displayed at the story that Clement Harris was killed with the butt of a rifle because he was unable to walk.

They Rely on Smolenski.

London, May 23.—The Athens correspondent of the Standard says: The government and people are now only anxious for the disarming of the irregulars, and they confidently rely upon General Smolenski to do this as soon as the conditions of peace have been agreed upon. The Greek army is paralyzed and news comes from Salonika of the departure of large Turkish reinforcements to Thessaly. At Larissa, Trilakia and Karditza, the Turks seized corn valued at a million drachmas. Great indignation is displayed at the story that Clement Harris was killed with the butt of a rifle because he was unable to walk.

Edem Pasha's Nerve.

Athens, May 23.—It is again semi-officially asserted that Edem Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, has repeated his statement that peace must be negotiated with him. He is pressing for the appointment of a Greek plenipotentiary to conduct the settlement of terms.

Will Be Deported.

London, May 23.—The Athens correspondent of the Times says: Owing to the disturbance caused by the presence in the city of large bodies of volunteers, the government has hastily recalled the force of gendarmes sent to Arta, and will take measures to deport these dangerous allies to their various countries as early as possible. Most of the volunteers making up the Berthel column are anarchists, and the government has dealt wisely in refusing to allow them to come here. The government sent them from Arta to Zavarada and there disarmed them, with orders to leave for Italy in Greek vessels. Thereupon they began to indulge in all sorts of excesses and got into conflict with the inhabitants with the result that one Italian was killed and six seriously wounded. Finally, after a great deal of trouble, they were sent to Brindisi under the escort of two Greek men-of-war.

Sent Them Home.

Larissa, May 23.—Edem Pasha, the Turkish commander, has disbanded and sent to their homes most of the Albanians in his army.

Not Yet Due.

Paris, May 23.—Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria had a long conference today with M. Hanotaux, minister of foreign affairs. It is understood that the Greco-Turkish war will be resumed if negotiations should not be finished.

Just a Rumor.

London, May 23.—According to a dispatch to the Daily Graphic from Corfu, it is reported that Colonel Manos attempted suicide while in jail. He has been sent to the hospital and his staff to Athens for trial by court martial.

In Mediation.

London, May 23.—The correspondent of the Times at Constantinople says: The powers have instructed their ambassadors to act as their representatives in mediation between Turkey and Greece. It is believed that the powers will be able to bring about a settlement of the dispute.

Tetuan-Comas Trouble.

London, May 23.—The Madrid correspondent of the Times says: Tetuan, in the history of the cortex has an event created such a sensation as the Tetuan-Comas incident. It is difficult to conceive how a stout and experienced statesman like the Duke of Tetuan could have completely lost his self-control on slight provocation. It is believed that Senor Sagasta is willing to do all he can consistently to minimize the difficulty of the situation, but it seems impossible that the Duke of Tetuan should retain his portfolio.

KING'S POSITION.

What He Did Say Concerning the Uncompagnie Bill.

(Special to The Herald.) Washington, May 23.—In an interview with a Herald representative last evening Mr. King stated that he had been misrepresented by the Associated Press report of his speech in the house the other day in reply to Mr. Aldrich. He said that he had said in the course of his remarks in regard to the proposition to open the Uncompagnie reservation to inalienable land, that he and other state officials were not men of integrity or unquestioned honesty. In his reply, Mr. King stated that he was not a man of integrity or unquestioned honesty, but that there was no doubt but that the frequent charges of socialism made against him were unfounded. He said that he was not a socialist, but that he was a man of integrity and unquestioned honesty. He said that he was not a socialist, but that he was a man of integrity and unquestioned honesty.

LATEST FIND.

May Prove of Great Importance in the Leutiger Case.

Chester, Mo., May 23.—Charged bones and some old clothing, said to be blood-stained, were taken by the police today from a building in the rear of the Leutiger case. The bones were found in a box, and the clothing was found in a trunk. The police are now examining the bones to determine if they are human. The case is of great importance, as it involves the life of a man who is accused of murder.

ROW OVER WATER.

Denver Man Kills One Neighbor and Wounds Another.

Denver, Colo., May 23.—One man was killed and another fatally wounded at Joe Lowe's road house, about five miles south of the city, at 4:45 this evening. Lowe has had trouble with a neighbor, Jacob Kisthard, over the water in an irrigation ditch, in which both are interested. Today Kisthard and his two sons were working on the ditch when some of Lowe's employees went to the ditch to erect his latrine. There were some of Lowe's guests, including Samuel S. McCall, a well known gambler, and John McKenna. A quarrel ensued, during which Daniel Kisthard drew a pistol and shot McCall and McKenna twice, each with the result above indicated.

MANCHESTER MARKETS.

No Change for the Better in the Industrials.

Manchester, May 23.—There is no change for the better in the industrials, which center here. Business is so small that the factories are practically at a standstill. The rate of eastern exchange makes Indian and Chinese orders for the most part impossible, and there is no sign of a revival as yet in the Levant. The looms are rapidly increasing. One result of this serious condition is a reduction in the price of yarns. Yarns are becoming plentiful, a regular glut, in fact, and the old orders are not being filled. The cotton market is irregular, and the quotations, which are but nominal, follow the decline in cotton. On the continent, however, the markets are steady and fairly strong.

POSTAL CONGRESS.

Back in Washington After a Cruise Down the Chesapeake.

Washington, May 23.—The members of the universal postal congress returned to Washington today after a cruise down the Chesapeake. The party went via Baltimore, a special train being placed at their disposal, and the water trip was made on the navy yard at Portsmouth, Va. The congress will be taken on a trip through the west about the first week of June. The plan at present contemplates a visit to Yellowstone park and stops at some of the leading cities.

THEY WILL BLOCK THE RESOLUTION

Decision Arrived at by House Republican Leaders.

WAITING TO HEAR FROM MR. M'KINLEY

SENATE WILL TAKE UP THE TARIFF BILL ON TUESDAY.

It will be Ten Weeks and a Day After the Beginning of a Session Called For the Special Purpose of Passing the Bill—Democrats Not Clear as to Just What Course to Pursue—Caucus to be Held Today.

Washington, May 23.—The Morgan resolution recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents, which passed the senate on Thursday, will not be acted upon by the house this week. That is the decision of the Republican leaders. They have decided to block the resolution until the plans of the president which are now maturing are formulated. There will doubtless be a demand on the part of the minority for immediate action, but they are powerless to secure consideration unless the rules committee will report a special order. This the rules committee will not do until Thursday. On Thursday the conference between the house and senate on the tariff bill will be held. If one or the other is not ready the house will adjourn until the following Monday.

Outlook in the Senate.

Washington, May 23.—On Tuesday next, ten weeks and a day after the beginning of the session, the senate will take up the tariff bill. The passage of which the session was especially called for. The bill was passed by the house on Monday, but the death of Senator Earle of South Carolina will render necessary an adjournment for a day.

Swimming Pool Usually, Was Evidently Full of Natural Gas, Which the Swimmer Inhaled and Was at Once Asphyxiated.

Charles, Cal., May 23.—The death of Charles Cavill, the noted Australian swimmer, here last night, is ascribed to a peculiar cause. It is thought that he was asphyxiated by gas instead of being drowned. The Stockton baths, where the fatal exhibition was given, are filled with water from natural wells and gases arise in the water in the tank. Cavill's exhibition of staying under water for several minutes is said to be a trick to fool the people. The swimmer drowned an inveterate habit of breathing air in which he breathed while he was under water. The tub used last night was placed in the water during the exhibition and he breathed for several minutes. Cavill went down and went under the tub as he had planned, and there died.

FALL RIVER MILLS.

But Little Improvement Has Been Shown So Far.

Boston, May 23.—The quarterly dividend statement of the Fall River mills does not show that there has been much improvement in the profit cloth market. The average amount paid to the shareholders is 10-10-10 of 1 per cent, which is the lowest in years. The mills are not doing well, and the shareholders are not getting what they expected. DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

Madrid, May 23.—The position of the cabinet is the theme of most anxious discussion on all sides. Some of the government organs think the ministry should meet the cortes tomorrow, endeavor to secure the adoption of such bills as are pressing, and then suspend the session as soon as possible. Others think a change of policy expedient and, in fact inevitable. All admit the difficulty of appointing a Carlist ministry to carry on the business of the country.
